

Participation of NIFT faculty in International Training , Conferences, Fairs & Exhibitions

To facilitate exchange of teaching pedagogy, concepts and professional ideas, the faculty at NIFT participates in academic exchange programs, International Training Programme , fairs, seminars, exhibitions, conferences and trade shows thereby bringing substantial experience to the classroom and enriching the knowledge pool at NIFT.

Prof. Dr. Martin Jeyasingh Mathews, NIFT Chennai who has decade of teaching experience at NIFT had undergone the International Training at Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD) Hong Kong from 1 Jan 2019 to 24th March 2019. He has been enriched with the courses on Graphic Design, Integrated Media design and Typographic Communication . These subject also to imbibe the pedagogy, transaction methods, assessment and evaluation system and feedback followed in the international design school experience. He has shared his experience to the faculty members and students through presentations and seminars.

