NOTICE INVITING EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (E.O.I)
(For providing counselling psychologist services to the students/faculty/officials of NIFT Delhi Campus)

1. Introduction

The National Institute of Fashion Technology (NIFT) was established in 1986 and became a statutory institute under the National Institute of Fashion Technology Act, 2006 enacted by the Parliament of India. NIFT has a network of full-fledged campuses across the country and is a premier institution in the field of fashion education, catering to the human resource requirements of the textile, apparel, fashion and lifestyle industries.

To promote the mental health and emotional well-being of its students, faculty and staff, NIFT Delhi Campus provides professional counselling services through qualified mental health professionals.

In order to meet the immediate requirement of an experienced Counselling Psychologist, Expressions of Interest (EOI) are invited from eligible and experienced professionals (preferably Women Consultants) for engagement as a Part-Time Visiting Counselling Psychologist on a temporary contractual/retainership basis for providing counselling and psychological support services to the students, faculty and staff of NIFT Delhi Campus.

2. Essential Qualifications and Eligibility Criteria

The applicant should possess the following qualifications and experience:

- M.A./M.Sc. in Clinical Psychology from a UGC-recognized University; OR
- MBBS with a recognized certification/course in Psychological Counselling and Therapy.
- Preference shall be given to candidates holding a Doctoral Degree (Ph.D./Psy.D.) and/or those already engaged with Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs), Autonomous Bodies, Government Educational Institutions or similar organizations for comparable assignments.
- Minimum 10 (Ten) years of post-qualification experience in counselling, psychotherapy or clinical psychology.

3. Scope of Work and Responsibilities

The empaneled Counselling Psychologist shall visit NIFT Delhi Campus three days a week for two hours each day, and additionally whenever required by the Institute for specific assignments.

The Consultant shall be responsible for, but not limited to, the following:

- Provide confidential psychological counselling to students, faculty and staff.
- Offer counselling for emotional, behavioural and academic concerns, including anxiety, stress, depression, examination-related pressure, homesickness and adjustment issues.
- Assist individuals experiencing personal or interpersonal difficulties, including bereavement, relationship issues, family conflicts and other developmental or adolescent concerns.
- Provide psychological support and preliminary intervention in cases involving eating disorders, trauma, post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), panic disorders and other mental health conditions requiring professional attention.
- Conduct individual and group counselling sessions, awareness programmes, workshops and stress management sessions whenever required.
- Identify individuals requiring specialized psychiatric intervention and recommend referral to appropriate medical or mental health facilities.
- Maintain complete confidentiality of counselling records and ensure compliance with professional ethics.
- Submit periodic reports, without disclosing confidential personal information, whenever required by the Competent Authority.
- Perform any other counselling-related duties assigned by the Institute from time to time.

4. Appointment and Tenure

- The engagement shall be purely temporary and contractual in nature.
- The initial tenure shall be one (01) year.
- The engagement may be extended annually, subject to satisfactory performance and the requirements of the Institute, up to a maximum period of three (03) years.
- The engagement shall not confer any right for regular appointment or continuation beyond the approved tenure.

5. Remuneration

The Part-Time Visiting Counselling Psychologist shall be paid a consolidated remuneration of ₹45,000/- (Rupees Forty-Five Thousand only) per month.

No other allowances or benefits shall be admissible unless specifically approved by the Institute.
