DESIGN COMPETITION FOR
BHARAT TEX
2025

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF FASHION TECHNOLOGY INTERNATIONAL STUDENT DESIGN COMPETITION FOR

ANNOUNCEMENT OF SHORTLISTED ENTRIES FOR PHASE II

The International Student Design Competition has received an overwhelming response from talented students across the globe, with participants representing diverse backgrounds, cultures, and perspectives, showcasing the power of design to transcend borders and unite creative minds from all corners of the world.

The overarching theme, 'Sustainable Future: Innovation with Indigenous Knowledge,' inspired a diverse range of Entries, each more impressive than the last. The Entries were blind-folded and reviewed by expert academicians from the National Institute of Fashion Technology. Reviewing them proved to be a rewarding challenge, as the submissions highlighted the potential of blending traditional indigenous knowledge with contemporary innovations aimed at a sustainable future.

After rigorously reviewing hundreds of superlative submissions from around the world, the works of the following candidates have stood out for creativity, innovation, and exceptional design. We congratulate the candidates on reaching this important milestone. The listing furnished below is in random order and is not indicative of any ranking or merit.
