

The technology service provider for the Project was selected by nomination mode following the failure of the tendering/RFP process and severe time constraints faced in a time bound project. CDAC was selected for this project in view of their expertise in heritage computing.